

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am signing Assembly Bill 1182 because it would prioritize and streamline reporting requirements of the state's higher education institutions, allowing for more efficient use of its resources. However, this bill inadvertently eliminates two agricultural programs run by the University of California, instead of simply repealing the reporting requirements. The author has committed to my office that she will clarify this technical error in subsequent legislation.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger